MEDIA

INFORMATION

Press Table: The La Salle men's basketball press table at the Philadelphia Civic Center is on the south side of the playing floor. Accredited media should enter through the Press Gate at the main entrance to the Civic Center.

Press Credentials: Requests for press credentials should be made in writing at least one week prior to the game. If time permits, credentials will be mailed. All other credentials should be picked up at the Press Gate.

Photographers: Photographers must have their photo passes visible at all times on the sidelines. All photographers must shoot from the baseline.

Press Parking: Parking is limited and passes are issued on a priority basis.

Press Services: Complete individual and team statistics are compiled by the Stat Man II computerized statistics program and is staffed by Harvey Pollack and his crew of statisticians. Statistics will be distributed at the press tables at halftime and in the press and interview rooms after the game.

Post-Game Interviews: Coach "Speedy" Morris will be in the interview room 10 minutes after the game. The visiting coach will follow Morris. Access to dressing rooms is determined on a per-game basis by each coach.

Telephones: Telephones are available at the press table for the media's use. Writers on deadline should arrange for their own phone lines by calling the La Salle University Sports Information Office.

◆ HEAD COACH BILL "SPEEDY" MORRIS

Bill "Speedy" Morris is a winner.

Morris' career coaching record stands at 570-165, including men's college basketball (139-52 with the La Salle men's team), women's college basketball (43-17 as La Salle's women's coach) and boy's high school (347-82 at Philadelphia Roman Catholic and 41-14 at Penn Charter).

Speedy's winning percentage in his six years as La Salle's men's coach (.728) places him 10th on the winningest active Division I coaches list (by percentage and with a minimum of five years at a Division I school).

The 1990 NCAA Tournament victory over Southern Mississippi in Hartford on March 15 was Speedy's 100th as La Salle's men's coach. Only three other Division I coaches have won that many games in their first four seasons - current Syracuse coach Jim Boeheim, North Carolina State's legendary coach of the late 40's and early 50's, Everett Case, and, most recently, Roy Williams of Kansas.

Coaching success has been the story wherever Morris has ventured, and especially since he took over as La Salle men's coach for the 1986-87 season. That success continued last season.

The 1991-92 season saw Morris lead the Explorers to their sixth straight post-season appearance and their fourth Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference tournament title and NCAA Tournament berth in five years. La Salle's exciting last-second victory over Manhattan in the MAAC finals and its heart-breaking two-point loss to Seton Hall in the NCAA Tournament, were two of college basketball's most-watched games during March Madness.

In 1989-90, Morris guided the Explorers to a 30-2 record (the most victories by any La Salle team in history and a school record of 22 straight wins), to their third straight MAAC regular-season championship (16-0) and the MAAC Tournament crown for the third consecutive NCAA berth. And when La Salle beat Southern Mississippi in Hartford, it was the Explorers' first NCAA victory since 1983.

The 1990-91 Explorers played in the National Invitation Tournament and lost a 93-90 heartbreaker at the University of Massachusetts.

His 1987-88 team compiled a 24-10 record, went 14-0 in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference and swept through the MAAC Tournament to earn the conference's NCAA Tournament berth. In 1989, Morris moved things up a notch with a 26-6 record, another MAAC regular-season championship (13-1) and the MAAC Tournament crown again.

Morris took his first Explorer team to a 20-13 record and into the championship game of the post-season National Invitation Tournament.

Morris has won or shared the MAAC Coach of the Year honors twice, gaining the solo honor in 1988 and sharing it with St. Peter's Ted Fiore in 1989. He was also named the 1989 and 1990 District 3 Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) and was voted the Eastern Coach of the Year in 1990. He was named the Philadelphia Big Five coach of the year in 1989 and in 1990 by the Philadelphia B'nai B'rith.

With La Salle's victory over St. Peter's in the 1989 MAAC Tournament championship game, it marked "Speedy's" 500th career victory, embracing high school, La Salle women's and La Salle men's careers. Morris first gained recognition as basketball coach at Roman Catholic High School in Philadelphia. In 14 seasons at Roman, Morris registered 347 victories and only 82 losses. Roman won one Philadelphia City Championship; six Philadelphia Catholic League titles; two National Catholic Tournament championships, and had four 30-win seasons.

Morris then spent two years as head coach at Philadelphia's William Penn Charter School where he posted a 41-14 record. His 1984 team won the Philadelphia Interacademic League championship, the school's first title in 12 seasons. Morris came to La Salle University for the 1984-85 season when he replaced Kevin Gallagher as head coach of the Explorers' women's program, becoming the first fulltime appointment to that position. Morris' Lady Explorer teams won 22 games in 84-85 and 21 games in 85-86. The 1985 team won the MAAC title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Following that season, Morris was named men's basketball coach, becoming the first Division I coach to make such a switch.

A native of Philadelphia, Morris and his wife, Mimi, live in the Roxborough section with their four children — Keith, a former guard on the La Salle team and recent graduate; Brian, a junior and team manager; Margaret Mary, a La Salle junior, and Christopher, 13, a student at St John the Baptist Elementary School.

COACH MORRIS ON:

Rebuilding from a team that almost knocked Seton Hall out of the NCAA Tournament, but from which four starters have graduated:

This will be our most difficult challenge. Much has been said about the loss of Randy Woods and Jack Hurd. However, we will also miss Milko Lieverst and Bron Holland. They were excellent players for us and will be hard to replace.

We hope that Don Shelton and Ray Schultz will take over some of the rebounding that Milko and Bron provided. Also, Blitz Wooten will be counted on for defense and shot-blocking purposes. I am counting on Luteke Kalombo to have improved and freshman Terquin Mott will have a chance to start or to get meaningful minutes up front.

The backcourt will consist of captain Jeff Neubauer, and sophomores Paul Burke and Kareem Townes. It is difficult to tell which two will start and the guard position will be extremely competitive for those two starting spots. Freshmen Quincy Lee and Mike Melchionni will challenge for playing time.

Our dilemma is that the new league (Midwestern Collegiate Conference) will be very difficult since most teams have many of their best players returning. Add to that our non-conference schedule (Kansas State, Maryland, Notre Dame, Princeton, Richmond, West Virginia, and Big 5 rivals Temple, Pennsylvania and St. Joseph's, etc.) is very difficult and it will take time for our many young players to develop.

Quite simply, we may be too young and inexperienced and we may take our lumps early. However, I like our team and I believe we can be a good squad by the end of the season.

COACH MORRIS ON:

Moving from the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) to the higher-rated MCC (Midwestern Collegiate Conference):

We look forward to playing in the new conference and competing against such teams as Dayton, Xavier, Evansville, Butler, Loyola of Chicago, Detroit Mercy and Duquesne. Since we graduated four starters (including Randy Woods, 27.3 points a game and Jack Hurd, 18 points per game), it will be a difficult task but we look forward to the challenge.

It will be exciting to bring the teams from our new conference into our Philadelphia Civic Center home court and I'm sure our fans look forward to it.

COACH MORRIS ON:

Playing against Dayton and coaching against his former high school player, coach Jim O'Brien (whom he coached at Roman Catholic High in Philadelphia):

I am NOT looking forward to coaching against Jimmy O'Brien. Jim is one of the finest players I have ever coached and he was extremely dedicated. . . It is a no-win situation. If we are fortunate enough to beat Dayton, I will feel bad for him. Obviously, if we don't win, I will feel bad for La Salle and myself.

COACH MORRIS ON:

How — or if — the team's stress on the three-point shot will change, with the Explorers' most prolific shooters, Randy Woods and Jack Hurd, having graduated:

The three-point shot has changed the game of basketball, particularly on how you play defensively. Although we may not have the luxury of shooters like Randy and Jack, we will have some fine perimeter marksmen.

Also, I firmly believe in the three-point shot and we will continue to utilize it as an effective part of our offense. We may not lead the nation in three-point field goals made as we did last season but we will have enough shooters to make it interesting for our opponents.

COACH MORRIS ON:

The succession of standout players he has recruited from the Philadelphia Public League — Lionel Simmons and Bob Johnson (South Philadelphia High), Doug Overton (Dobbins Tech) and Randy Woods (Ben Franklin):

We have been very fortunate to get quality players like Lionel, Bob, Doug and Randy. It is amazing how well each of them did, especially since no one in the Big 5 offered Bobby, Doug or Randy a scholarship.

The biggest praise that I have for each of these of these young men is that they graduated in four years. Although they deserve much of the credit for this accomplishment, so does La Salle University. Our Academic Support Program is excellent. I would be remiss if I did not mention the job that Joe Gillespie, our tutorial coordinator, did in working with Lionel, Bob, Doug and Randy. He is a real asset for our players and they appreciate him very much.

In the cases of Bobby Johnson and Randy Woods, our Academic Support Program under Bob Miedel did a terrific job. The ASP program is and has been for many years a real asset to La Salle. Hopefully, we can continue to attract quality players from the Philadelphia area like Lionel, Bob, Doug and Randy.

COACH MORRIS ON:

The influx of South Jersey players into his system, like Quincy Lee (Paulsboro), Mike Melchionni (Bishop Eustace) and next year, Romaine Haywood (Atlantic City):

The future of our program will be in the hands of our young people and we feel that we recruited extremely well in the South Jersey area. Romaine Haywood, Quincy Lee and Mike Melchionni all have had exceptional high school careers at their respective schools.

There is no reason to think that they will stop improving and we are counting on them to make significant contributions to La Salle University and our basketball program. Besides their fine basketball ability, all three are excellent young men. We are fortunate to have them at La Salle.

COACHING STAFF

Joe Mihalich

An Explorer to the core, Joe Mihalich has both played and coached basketball at La Salle University. The Philadelphia native is in his 12th season as a member of the coaching staff. Mihalich was the 1978 NCAA squad's Co-captain and "Most-Dedicated-Player." He was a four-time letter-winner under Coach Paul Westhead. Following his senior year, Mihalich apprenticed under the legendary high school coach, Morgan Wooten, at DeMatha High School in Washington D.C. As head coach of DeMatha's junior-varsity team, Mihalich posted a three-year record of 39-5. The 36-year old Mihalich is pursuing a Master's degree in Sports Administration from Temple University. Joe and his wife, Mary, have three sons, Joe (5), and twins Matt and Tony (4). They live in Northeast Philadelphia.

Randy Monroe

In his fifth season on the La Salle basketball staff is Randy Monroe. Monroe came to La Salle following two seasons as an assistant coach at Cheyney University. As a player, Monroe led the Wolves to a berth in the 1986 NCAA Division II final. Monroe is a 1987 Cheyney graduate with a bachelor's degree in Recreation Administration. The 29-year old has been active in many area and regional basketball camps over the past few years. Monroe played his high school basketball at Roman Catholic High School under current Explorer coach Speedy Morris. In his senior year at Roman, he was a first team All-Philadelphia selection. Monroe garnered the Catholic League MVP award as well as earning a first- team berth on the All-Catholic League squad. Monroe is single and lives in Philadelphia.

Rich Prendergast

An enthusiastic supporter of La Salle basketball, Prendergast enters his eighth season as a volunteer coach to Speedy Morris' team. Prendergast has coached in the Philadelphia CYO and in the Catholic League high school system. Before joining the La Salle coaching staff, Prendergast directed the women's team at Hallahan High School to two playoff berths in four seasons. In 1986, Prendergast was honored with the Mary S. O'Connor Loyalty Award for dedication and service to the La Salle women's intercollegiate athletic programs. Prendergast, a 1960 La Salle graduate, lives in Stone Harbor, NJ. Two of his three daughters, Maria and Katherine, are La Salle graduates, while the youngest, Colleen, aspires to become an Explorer.

ASSISTS:	9 vs. Manhattan	3/9/92

1991-92: Voted to MAAC All-Academic Team for the second straight year. Showed his true mettle in the MAAC Tournament. Put back into the starting role he had relinquished to Paul Burke 11 games earlier, Neubauer played 117 of a possible 120 minutes in the Explorers' three victories. (Burke suffered an appendicitis attack after La Salle had closed its regular season.) In the three tournament games (37 minutes vs. Fairfield and 40 each against Siena and Manhattan), Neubauer controlled the La Salle offense, highlighted by a one-turnover-in-40-minutes-performance in a semifinal victory over Siena. Toured Europe with the MCC All-Star Team during the summer.

1990-91: Biggest surprise of season. After playing only 43 minutes as a freshman, Jeff vaulted into a prominent role with the early-season suspension of Randy Woods and a late-season ankle injury to Doug Overton. During the season, he started eight games and also filled in for those two guards plus forward Jack Hurd... Made All-MAAC Academic team with a 3.58 GPA in Finance; also Dean's List member at La Salle... In 552 minutes of playing time, he committed only 15 turnovers, which projects to 1.1 for every 40 minutes... Shot 5-for-6 from three-point range while scoring 15 points against Manhattan (2/18/91; equalled that career-high against Iona five days later, aided by a 9-for-11 performance from the foul line).

1989-90: Seeing action in 16 games, Jeff Neubauer scored 14 points and had 14 rebounds, with his season-high four rebounds coming in La Salle's Civic Center home-season finale, a 106-73 romp over Army.

PERSONAL: Born 1/27/71...Jeff was an Honorable Mention All-State 4-A selection in his senior year at Slidell High under coach Danny Ruffin. Slidell won the District 13 4-A title when Neubauer averaged 17.1 points, 5.8 rebounds and four assists a game. Graduated 22nd in his class of 306... Finance major.

1991-92: Sat out season to concentrate on academic studies.

1990-91: Second leading shot-blocker (17 to Jack Hurd's 23), including four against Canisius (2/9/91)... Improved field goal shooting from 19.2% as a sophomore to 45.1% (23-for-51).

1989-90: Don Shelton's best night came on a big night, La Salle's first home game at the Philadelphia Civic Center. He blocked three shots and grabbed five rebounds as the Explorers held off Pennsylvania, 86-63... Don played in 22 games, had 28 rebounds, 12 off the offensive boards. He also blocked eight shots.

1988-89: Don's efforts in the MAAC tournament helped La Salle sweep through the field into the NCAA Tournament. He scored a career-high eight points in the opening-round victory over Fairfield at the Palestra and was a factor in the semifinal win over Fordham.

PERSONAL: Born 9/4/70... Played at Trenton Central High under coach Tom Smith. He was All-Mercer County in his senior year, during which he averaged 11 points, eight rebounds and four blocked shots a game as Trenton Central posted a 24-4 record. As a junior, Shelton scored 12 points a game as Trenton Central went 25-4 and reached the State semifinals... Management major.

1991-92: Stats sheet shows he played only 24 minutes all season but exuberance in practice and on the bench during games made up for lack of playing time. Team's only walk-on. Played in 15 games. Suffered broken right foot during off-season conditioning program.

1990-91: Played in nine games, scored in one (five points vs. Manhattan, 2/18/91)... Extremely active in practice sessions, usually assigned to defend against Explorers' outstanding guards.

1989-90: Played 35 minutes in 17 games, hit on 50% of his field goal tries... Of his 15 rebounds, eight were off the offensive board... The only walk-on player on the 30-2 team. Approaches every practice as though it were the NCAA championship game.

PERSONAL: Born 4/6/71... Entered La Salle University on a four-year Christian Brothers scholarship from St. John's Prep, Washington, D.C., where he played varsity basketball under coach Joe Gallagher. Averaged 12 points and seven rebounds in his senior season at St. John's... Ranked 11th out of 157 in his high school senior class, with a Grade Point Average (GPA) of 3.95. A member of La Salle's honors program, he is majoring in Political Science... Voted La Salle University's Man of the '90s; candidate for Rhodes Scholarship.

Averaged 35.2 points, 13 rebounds, and eight assists per game in his senior season and wound up as South Jersey's third all-time leading scorer with 2,543 points. A four-year starter under coach Tino Monti, Quincy made first team All-Group I and All-South Jersey, second team All-Area and third team All-State. He participated in NIKE/ABCD Camp, at which the 125 top players in the USA take part.

MIKE MELCHIONNI

A cousin of the four brothers who made the name famous — Billy (Villanova, Philadelphia 76ers, New Jersey Nets), Gary (Duke), Bob and Tom (Villanova). A three-year starter under Bill Lange at Eustace, Mike's shooting and rebounding were instrumental in helping the Crusaders capture two South Jersey Group B titles. He was named South Jersey's Unsung Hero after his senior season. Effective 3-point shooter which should fit in with coach Morris' offense.

TERQUIN MOTT

Forward

Freshman

Philadelphia, PA

Terquin's growth over the summer may enable coach "Speedy" Morris to use him at the center spot, although forward is a more natural position. In two years as a starter under Tom Mann, Glen Mills was 55-6, and captured the 1991 Pennsylvania AAAA championship. In his senior year, Terquin averaged 20.1 points, 9.8 rebounds, 3.2 blocks, and 1.7 steals per game. He received first team All-Delaware County, second team All-State and third team All-Area.

KAREEM TOWNES

Guard

Latest in line of Philadelphia Public League stars to play for coach Morris, following 1990 Player of the Year Lionel Simmons (Southern), 1991 Detroit Pistons' draftee Doug Overton (Dobbins) and 1992 Los Angeles Clippers' first-round draft pick, Randy Woods (Ben Franklin). Townes sat out last season as a Prop 48 but hopes to expand on skills that enabled him to average 41.2 points per game in his senior Public League season at Southern High. He became the league's second all-time one season leading scorer behind Wilt Chamberlain (47.2 in 1955). Townes also broke Simmons' record of 56 in one game when he poured in 59. Shot 57% from the field as a senior, including 47% from three-point range. Also averages four assists and 6.5 steals.

THE PHILADELPHIA CIVIC CENTER

"Home of The Explorers"

High and low moments on the court and memorable moments in between the action produced lively memories of La Salle University's third season in its return to the Philadelphia Civic Center, and set the stage for the invasion of the outstanding teams from the MCC, the new conference which the Explorers have joined.

On January 4, 1992, the Explorers took the court without coach "Speedy" Morris. He had been hospitalized for tests and assistant coach Joe Mihalich took the reins. Overcoming the one-game loss of their coach, the Explorers breezed to a 120-88 romp over Iona, using a 30-point, 14-assist, 11-rebound night of excellence from Randy Woods as its centerpiece.

Not all the Civic Center moments were bright, though. With two seconds to play, Princeton scored a basket that gave the Tigers a 47-46 overtime victory, and La Salle had a 15-point lead over Notre Dame in the second half but saw that evaporate into an 87-79 loss.

The 1991-92 season also saw the Explorers bow out of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference with eight consecutive home victories after an opening loss to Siena.

One of the bright flashback moments came on Feb. 21, when members of the 1952 National Invitation Tournament championship team were reunited for a 40th anniversary party and were cheered during a halftime ceremony.

When La Salle defeated Manhattan, 90-67, on Feb. 28, the Explorers had a 26-7 record to show for their first three seasons back at the Civic Center.

The Civic Center, or Convention Hall as it was known in earlier years, has housed that 1952 NIT and 1954 NCAA Tournament champions, two Philadelphia Warriors' and one Philadelphia 76ers' NBA championship teams, five national political conventions, visits by Pope John Paul II and the Beatles, and countless other notable events.

For La Salle fans, the Explorer Room, the official events in the President's Room, the Alumni Reunion nights, and numerous other events provide an additional touch of enjoyment to the games.

LA SALLE EXPLORERS

THE SCORING LEGACY OF NUMBER 22

The La Salle jersey #22 was retired after the 1989-90 season to recognize the achievements of Lionel Simmons, who is currently playing with the NBA's Sacramento Kings. Simmons, the Explorers' all time leading scorer, finished his career with 3,217 points, which was also good for third place on the NCAA all-time scoring list.

However, #22 could have been retired 25 years ago when Hubie Marshall scored 1,576 points wearing that famed number. In fact, #22 has been worn by some of the most prolific scorers in La Salle history, as the chart below indicates.

No.	Player	Years	Points	LSU All-time Scoring List
22	Hubie Marshall	1964-67	1,576	8th
22	Kurt Kanaskie	1976-80	1,356	14th
22	Steve Black	1981-85	2,012	4th
22	Lionel Simmons	1986-90	3,217	1st
TOTAL POINTS			8,161

In scoring over 8,000 points in 15 seasons of competition, these men averaged 20 points per game wearing #22. In this case, it wasn't the shoes, it was the shirt. And a great deal of talent.

2,000-POINT SCORERS

A total of 294 players in Division I history have scored at least 2,000 points over their careers. The first was Jim Lacy, Loyola (MD) with 2,154 over four seasons ending with 1949. The first to reach 2,000 in a three-season career was Frank Selvy, 2,538 through 1954. The 294 come from 164 different colleges. Duke leads with seven 2,000-pointers. North Carolina and Tennessee are next with five apiece. Georgetown, Georgia Tech, LA SALLE, Loyola (Cal.), Michigan, Oklahoma, Purdue, St. Bonaventure, Villanova, and Virginia, are next with four each. Then comes 19 with three each, 47 with two apiece and 86 more with one each. La Salle's career 2,000-point scorers are:

Name	Years	Points
Lionel Simmons	1986-90	3,217
Michael Brooks	1976-80	2,628
Tom Gola	1951-55	2,461

◆ REMEMBER WHEN . . .

45 Years Ago 1947-48

In his second season as head coach, Charley McGlone guides La Salle College into its first National Invitation Tournament. Led by 6-9 Larry Foust and sparkplug guard Bob "Ace" McCann, the Explorers go 20-3 in the regular-season but bow to the Western Kentucky Hilltoppers, 68-61, in the NIT's first round in New York's Madison Square Garden.

40 Years Ago 1952-53

Coming off its National Invitation Tournament championship of the previous season, La Salle is rated Number One in the Associated Press pre-season poll. With only captain "Buddy" Donnelly having graduated from the starting five, coach Ken Loeffler's Explorers race to a 25-2 record but are upset by St. John's, 75-74, in the first round of the NIT. All-America Tom Gola and rebounding ace Jackie Moore miss part of the game because of injuries and illness. While most of the team would be gone after the season, Gola and reserve guard Frank "Wacky" O'Hara would be joined the following year by a freshman team coming off a 14-1 record. This combination provides La Salle with the 1954 NCAA championship.

25 Years Ago 1967-68

Led by Larry Cannon's 19.5 points and 9.9 rebounds per game, La Salle racks up a 20-7 regular-season mark but falls to Columbia in the NCAA's at the Spectrum. "Lefty" Ervin, Fran Dunphy, Bernie Williams and Roland "Fatty" Taylor spark a team that will provide a nucleus for the following season when the Explorers produce a 23-1 record under new coach Tom Gola. The '67-68 team beats American and Temple in the Middle Atlantic Conference tournament at the Palestra to earn the NCAA berth.

15 Years Ago 1977-78

Darryl Gladden's last-second basket gives Paul Westhead's Explorers a 73-72 victory over Temple in the East Coast Conference championship game at Lafayette and sends La Salle into the NCAA Tournament against Philadelphia Big 5 rival Villanova. In a Palestra classic, the Wildcats pull out a 103-97 overtime victory. On his way to future national honors, sophomore Michael Brooks averages 24.9 points and 12.8 rebounds a game and is voted the Big 5's Player of the Year.

10 Years Ago 1982-83

Sophomore guard Steve Black averages 20.1 points a game and tops that off with a 40-point outburst at the Spectrum as the Explorers bow to Temple, 84-79, in overtime, before 17,583. A few weeks later, La Salle captures the East Coast Conference tournament title and enters the NCAA Tournament. A Palestra victory over Boston University, in which all five starters hit double figures, sends the Explorers to Greensboro, North Carolina, for the next round where they bow to Virginia Commonwealth, 76-67, despite 31 points by Black.

5 Years Ago 1987-88

For the first time, La Salle represents the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) in the NCAA Tournament. The Explorers go unbeaten in regular-season conference play, then sweep past Manhattan, Holy Cross and Fordham to earn the NCAA berth. Sparked by senior Tim Legler and sophomore Lionel Simmons, La Salle posts a 24-9 mark, then loses to Kansas State in the NCAA's as Mitch Richmond goes for 30 points, nine assists and seven rebounds. Simmons scores 792 points in 34 games, until then the La Salle record for most points in one season.

A WINNING TRADITION

The Explorers all-time record of 1031-546 (.654) places them 12th on the all-time winning percentage list. Recently, the NCAA researched school's records by decade. Not surprisingly, La Salle has never had a losing decade and has started the '90s off very well with a 75 percent winning percentage (69-23). The data:

Period	Years	Games	Won	Lost	Pct.
1931-39	9	168	110	58	.655
1940-49	10	221	137	84	.620
1950-59	10	274	209	65	.763
1960-69	10	244	161	83	.660
1970-79	10	273	156	117	.571
1980-89	10	305	189	116	.620
1990-92	3	92	69	23	.750
Overall	62	1577	1031	546	.654

Doug Overton

Joe Bryant

La Salle in the NBA Draft

When Randy Woods was made the 16th selection in the 1992 draft by the Los Angeles Clippers, La Salle became one of only five schools to have at least one player drafted in each of the past three years. This past June, Woods joined teammates Lionel Simmons (1990) and Doug Overton (1991). The other schools in this elite company are Syracuse, Georgia Tech, Louisiana State and Arizona. La Salle players selected in the first two rounds since 1969 are:

Name	Year	Team	Round	Overall Pick
Randy Woods	1992	Los Angeles Clippers	1st	16th
Doug Overton	1991	Detroit Pistons	2nd	40th
Lionel Simmons	1990	Sacramento Kings	1st	7th
Michael Brooks	1980	San Diego Clippers	1st	9th
Joe Bryant	1975	Golden State Warriors	1st	14th
Ken Durrett	1971	Kansas City Kings	1st	4th
Larry Cannon	1969	Chicago Bulls	1st	5th

EXPLORERS

The Explorer and friend.

Bron Holland makes a big layup against Villanova last season at the Spectrum.

Randy Woods is joined by coach "Speedy" Morris in celebrating Randy's 1,000th La Salle point, scored against California early in the 1991-92 season.

La Salle University's Sports Medicine effort for the 1992-93 basketball season is comprised of a team effort headed by Head Athletic Trainer Bill Gerzabek. Gerzabek, along with assistant trainer Lisa Poli, team physicians Dr. Tony Balsamo, MD and Dr. Marc Manzione, MD, and fitness director Pat Dewechter, ATC, CSCS., form one of the finest staffs in college athletics.

Gerzabek is in his fifth season as the Explorers' athletic trainer. A 1985 graduate of Central Connecticut State, he spent two years at Georgetown University prior to becoming the head of LaSalle's sports medicine staff. He completed a M.S. degree in Sports Medicine from Old Dominion University.

Lisa Poli is serving her first year on the Explorers' staff.

Balsamo is the Chief of Orthopedic Surgery at Holy Redeemer Hospital in Huntingdon Valley, PA. Both Balsamo and Manzione, from Pennsylvania Orthopedics Associates, serve as the orthopedic specialists for the Explorers. Dewechter oversees the team's fitness and nutrition programs.

Beginning with pre-season fitness screenings, the La Salle Sports Medicine team works throughout the season providing Explorer varsity athletes with first-class physical therapy, orthopedic rehabilitation and flexibility programs.

YOUNGEST TO REACH 1,000 WINS

When La Salle defeated Niagara, 84-78, at the Philadelphia Civic Center on January 12, 1991, the victory was the 1,000th in the school's history. The Explorers' official start of intercollegiate varsity basketball was the 1930-31 season, giving La Salle the distinction of being the team with the fewest number of seasons — 62 — to reach the grand total.

THE MCC — ITS HISTORY AND ITS AIM

The 1992-93 athletic year marks a new era for La Salle University as it enters the Midwestern Collegiate Conference. With the addition of Duquesne and La Salle, the MCC has extended its membership into the Eastern region of the country, deliberately changing the focus of the conference from regional to national.

The nine institutions that comprise the Midwestern Collegiate Conference have built their association on common academic and athletics philosophies. The MCC institutions are private universities within major metropolitan areas that have developed a niche as advocates for academic integrity and athletic achievement. Each university benefits greatly from its metropolitan location, providing business, cultural, educational and entertainment resources to the university community. Each is committed to fielding a broad-based athletics program that is nationally competitive at the NCAA Division I level.

The MCC membership includes four of its 1979 charter members, Butler University, the University of Evansville, Loyola University of Chicago and Xavier University. The University of Detroit Mercy joined the conference in 1980 as the University of Detroit prior to its merger with Mercy College in 1990. The University of Dayton entered in 1987. The University of Notre Dame, an associate member beginning in 1982, became a full-time member in 1987 after a two-year departure from the league. Duquesne and La Salle announced their intention to join the MCC December 19, 1991.

The conference quickly identified men's basketball as its flagship sport. The MCC first received automatic qualification to the NCAA Division I tournament in 1982, and the progress escalated in the succeeding years until the MCC was ranked consistently among the nation's top 10 conferences in many areas including nonconference record, strength of schedule, regular-season attendance, conference tournament attendance and NCAA Tournament success.

Originally formed as a conference for men's sports only, women's athletics were added in 1986-87. While men's basketball quickly brought national attention to the MCC, it is the commitment to broad-based athletics programs that will boost the conference into the 21st Century.

The blueprint for future success of the MCC athletics programs began in 1988 when the conference adopted a target priority sports program, establishing scholarship and scheduling requirements for three men's and three women's sports. In addition, the conference recommended minimum funding levels for coaching and recruiting budgets. The priority sports include baseball, basketball and soccer for men, and basketball, soccer and volleyball for women.

The impact of the target priority program can be chronicled by the awarding of automatic qualification to the MCC by the NCAA. In 1989, the MCC received automatic qualification to the men's soccer championship for the first time. In 1992, the conference champion was guaranteed entry to the women's basketball championship for the first time, and the baseball bid, lost for two years, was restored. This year, the conference volleyball champion will automatically qualify for the NCAA championship for the first time.

After hiring its first full-time commissioner in 1985, the MCC moved its offices to Indianapolis where the conference has contributed to the city's image as the "Amateur Sports Capital of the World." This year, the MCC will conduct its premier event, the men's basketball championship, at Market Square Arena in Indianapolis, March 11-13. Host of the 1980 Final Four and home of the Indiana Pacers, Market Square will provide an excellent venue for the eight-team tournament. In addition, the MCC will conduct three other championships in Indianapolis and will co-host with Butler University the first and second rounds of the 1993 NCAA Men's Basketball Championship at the Hoosier Dome. It will be the fifth NCAA basketball event, including the 1991 Final Four, co-hosted by the MCC.

In June, the leadership baton in the MCC office was passed to its fifth commissioner, Jonathan B. LeCrone. After spending nine years as assistant commissioner at the Atlantic Coast Conference, LeCrone brings an exciting perspective to the MCC.

1991-92: A SEASON THAT WENT TO THE WIRE . . . SEVERAL TIMES

It came down to the final few seconds . . . again!!!

For the second consecutive time in the post-season, the fate of the La Salle University men's basketball team was sealed with so few ticks left on the clock. This time, however, it was different than on March 9th, when the Explorers had defeated Manhattan, 77-76, to capture the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference tournament championship on Bron Holland's jump shot with 11.6 seconds to play.

This time, the Explorers were the victims, and the venue was the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Greensboro, NC. Seton Hall's Terry Dehere stuck in a 19-foot jump shot with 1.8 seconds left and the Pirates had overcome an eight-point deficit in the final 4:12. Thus, La Salle's fourth appearance in the last five NCAA's came to an abrupt end.

La Salle's Randy Woods, who assured himself of highlight-film stardom with his outstanding performance in the loss, put up a line of 33 points, five rebounds, four assists and four steals, plus an assortment of plays that had the crowd gasping in admiration.

When his three-season career was over, Woods had achieved a number of statistical plateaus: tied Lionel Simmons for second-most points in a season (847), the second-highest scoring average in a season (27.3), the most points in a three-year career (1,811), fifth overall in points scored (1,811).

Meanwhile, fellow senior Jack Hurd had captained the Explorers in this, his fourth season, and put up some interesting figures himself, not the least of which was having played — and started — 124 consecutive games, during which La Salle posted a four-year mark of 95-29 for a .766 percentage.

In addition, he was voted to the GTE Academic All-America first team in his senior year after making second team as a junior. Hurd also was named to the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference All-Academic team three years and the All-MAAC Tournament and regular-season all-star team in his senior season. On the court, he finished as the school's all-time leader in three-point field goals made and attempted and as its ninth leading scorer with 1,693 points.

Meanwhile, back to the MAAC, to which La Salle was saying farewell after a productive nine-year hitch. To get past the tournament semifinals and into the title test, La Salle had to overcome Siena on one of its home courts, Knickerbocker Arena, in Albany, NY. Siena had beaten the Explorers in their two previous games this season (68-65 in Philadelphia and 77-64 in The Knick).

Woods, who had scored 42 points in La Salle's first-round victory over Fairfield, tallied 22 against the Saints and received considerable help from Hurd (26 points, 10 rebounds) and their fellow senior, Milko Lieverst (a career-tying 19 points).

In the championship contest with Manhattan, three-point marksmen Woods and Hurd were at it in force. Woods scored 32 points (6-for-12 from three-point land) and Hurd added 23 (5-12 on three's). For the game, Manhattan shot 55.1% and, during the end of the first half and the beginning of the second, made 16 of 17 field goal attempts.

1991-92: A REVIEW

La Salle, however, wound up shooting 56.4% itself, and stayed within range on its three-point bombing and a tightened defense. The Explorers trailed by five (76-71) with 1:20 left but Carey Edwards' jump shot at that juncture was to be Manhattan's last points. Woods hit two free throws at 1:07, then freshman Blitz Wooten rebounded a Woods field goal miss and put it back in with 41.3 seconds to play. La Salle now trailed by a point, 76-75. A backcourt violation had preceded the Explorers' field goal and, after La Salle had stolen a pass into the lane, coach Speedy Morris called a time out and set up the play that won it — a feed from Jeff Neubauer into Holland, a little fake left, a turn to the right and . . . score the goal!!

From there, the Explorers headed to the NCAA Tournament, where they gave Seton Hall's Big East co-champions all they could handle before being ousted by Dehere's last-second heroics.

From this team, the Explorers will lose four seniors who started every game — Hurd, Woods, Lieverst and Holland — and reserve guard Keith Morris, but the 1991-92 campaign also showcased a trio of freshmen in whose hands much of the future rests. Add to them seniors-to-be Neubauer, Ray Schultz, Mike Bergin and 1991-92 redshirt Don Shelton, and La Salle can confidently head into a new era.

Meanwhile, coach Morris finished his sixth season with a 139-52 record and a .728 percentage that keeps him among the top echelon of Division I coaches.

Temple, Villanova, California (sparked by Woods' 42-point explosion) and Brigham Young — those were a handful of the high-profile teams which fell before the Explorers' offensive onslaught that had produced an average of 80.1 points a game during the 1991-92 campaign.

There were many moments of glory — Hurd's last-second, game-winning, off-balance jump shot that handed Brigham Young its first homecourt loss of the season after 10 victories quickly comes to mind — and there were high hopes dashed — like losing to Princeton on a last-second field goal in overtime, and the loss to Notre Dame when a 15-point lead with 17:30 to play evaporated into the Philadelphia Civic Center air.

Just around mid-season, Morris began to get more production from his freshmen. Paul Burke took over at point guard and played like a veteran, turing a negative assist-turnover ratio around and winding up very much on the plus side. His potential as a scorer was shown on Jan. 4, when he entered the game against Iona and canned a trio of three-pointers within 40 seconds.

Following the final regular-season game against Fairfield (3/1/92), Burke was stricken with appendicitis and the ensuing surgery forced him to miss the MAAC Tournament. He returned to action against Seton Hall in the NCAA, playing 24 minutes and scoring 12 points (all in the second half). Junior Neubauer took over for him, played 117 out of a possible 120 minutes in the MAAC Tournament and capped his performance with a career-high nine assists in the championship win over Manhattan.

Wooten, a medical redshirt, became the Explorers' main shot-blocker and gave seniors Lieverst and Holland considerable help on the boards. Blitz wound up as the team's leading blocker with 27 (22 in the last 11 games), despite averaging only 15.9 minutes per game for the season. Another freshman, Luteke Kalombo, provided occasional offensive help, as evidenced by his career-high 18 points against Canisius on Jan. 25, 1992.

◆ LA SALLE'S BEST

TOM GOLA 1954 Player of the Year

Tom Gola, plain and simple, put La Salle basketball on the map. Widely regarded as the premier college player of his time, Gola led the Explorers to the 1952 NIT and 1954 NCAA Championships. A scorer both inside and outside, he averaged 20.9 points and 19.0 rebounds in his four-year career. A three-time collegiate All-American, Gola played in the NBA with the Philadelphia Warriors and New York Knicks and was named All-Pro five times. Gola added to his La Salle glory as head coach of the 1968-69 Explorers who finished 23-1 and as the second ranked team in the nation.

Among Gola's honors are: 1969 Coach of the Year, New York and Philadelphia Sports Writers; 1979 NCAA Silver Anniversary Award Recipient; "Living Sports Legend", Philadelphia Sports Writers Association, 1985; Madison Square Garden Hall of Fame; Madison Square Garden All-Time Team; Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame; SPORT Magazine All-Time All-American Team; Helms College Basketball Hall of Fame; Big Five Hall of Fame, 1986 (Special Category, Coach)

MICHAEL BROOKS 1980 Player of the Year

A consensus All-American, Brooks is the school's 2nd all-time leading scorer and 19th on the NCAA career scoring list. He also holds the school mark for most points in a game with 51. A spectacular combination of strength and grace highlighted Brooks' play as did his intelligence on the court. In 1980, Brooks was named Captain of the United States Olympic Team and East Coast Conference "Player of the Year". Brooks played professionally with the NBA's San Diego Clippers.

Among Brooks' honors are: United States Basketball Writers Association "Player of the Year" 1980; Big Five "Player of the Year" 1978, 1980; Big Five Hall of Fame 1986; Widmer Eastern College "Player of the Year"; National Association of Basketball Coaches "Player of the Year" 1980; ECAC All-Decade Team (1970-79)

LIONEL SIMMONS 1990 Player of the Year

Simmons, the Explorers all-time leading scorer, continued the La Salle tradition of dominant players, winning every national Player of the Year award as a unanimous All-American in 1990. He is the 3rd leading scorer in NCAA history and the only player to score over 3,000 points (3,217) and pull down over 1,085 rebounds (1,429). Upon graduating, he also held the NCAA record for consecutive games scoring in double figures with 115. Simmons owns the La Salle record book as the career leader in eight categories. He also captained the 1989-90 Explorers, who set a single season record with 30 victories. Simmons is now in his third season with the NBA's Sacramento Kings.

Among Simmons' honors are the 1990: John R. Wooden Award; Eastman Kodak Award (National Association of Basketball Coaches); Joe Lapchick Award (Basketball Hall of Fame) and the Naismith Award. He was named 1990 Player of the Year by: Associated Press; United Press International; U.S. Basketball Writers Association (Mercedes Benz Award); Basketball Weekly; World Almanac; ESPN; Cawood Ledford Productions; and Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (1988-89-90) and the Philadelphia Big 5 (1988-89-90).

1952 NIT CHAMPIONS

Grekin, Gola MVPs as La Salle Tops Dayton to Win NIT Championship

1952

In the early days of post-season basketball tournaments — in the late 1930s through the middle '50s — the National Invitation Tournament was at least on a par with and perhaps superior to the still-emerging NCAA Tournament. So, when the La Salle Explorers romped through Seton Hall, St. John's, Duquesne and Dayton to capture the 1952 championship, it was a feat of national basketball importance.

La Salle, coached by future Hall of Famer Ken Loeffler, had entered the NIT as an unseeded team and had to get by Seton Hall's powerful Pirates, led by seven-footer Walter Dukes and an exceptional guard in Richie Regan. But La Salle freshman Tom Gola and junior Fred Lehle hit for 30 and 25 points respectively, with Lehle pouring in 20 in the first half.

Gola had 19 rebounds and six assists and junior Norm Grekin grabbed 15 boards. In a game that was described as one of the best in the NIT's 14-year history, the lead margin on either side was never more than four points, as a capacity crowd of 18,422 wildly cheered on both teams in New York's old Madison Square Garden.

In the quarter-finals, Grekin, playing his way toward a share of tournament MVP honors with Gola, tallied 17 points and had 16 rebounds in a 51-45 victory over local favorite St. John's. And Grekin again played a big role in the 59-46 romp over the Sihugo Green-led Duquesne Dukes, rated by many as the top team in the tournament. Grekin had 21 points and 10 rebounds, Gola contributed 14 rebounds and 10 points and sophomore Jackie Moore added 12 points and 11 rebounds.

Then came the championship game against a tall and talented Dayton Flyers team, and it was no contest. Led by Gola and Lehle and playmaking captain Buddy Donnelly, the Explorers built a 38-30 halftime lead, then wrapped up the title with a 37-34 second-half advantage. Grekin, Gola and Moore were named to the All-Tournament team, and the Olympic Trials were just ahead.

At that time, the Olympic squad was picked from team trials rather than individuals as is done today. In those Trials, La Salle again defeated St. John's, 71-62, but bowed to Clyde Lovellette and the Kansas Jayhawks, 70-65, and fell before the Phillips Oilers, an AAU powerhouse.

LA SALLE BEATS BRADLEY, 92-76, FOR NCAA TITLE Explorers Wrap Up Game With 30-Point 3d Period; 2 Scoring Marks Broken

By Bob Vetrone
Of The Bulletin Sports Staff

Kansas City, Mo., March 20 — La Salle College, playing by far its greatest game of a long and successful season, roared to a 92-76 victory over Bradley tonight to bring Philadelphia its first NCAA basketball championship.

The Explorers, receiving sparkling performance from about a half dozen of its players, used a devastating 30-point third quarter to reach the highest pinnacle any local team has approached. Tom Gola, Charley Singley, Frank Blatcher, Fran O'Malley, Frank O'Hara — all took important parts in the triumph, which was turned into a runaway by that prolific third quarter.

In rolling to its 92-point total, La Salle broke the record for points in a championship game. The combined pointage of 168 also set a new record for the tourney final.

The Road to the 1954

NCAA Championship began in Buffalo . . .

FIRST ROUND

LA SALLE 76, Fordham 74 (OT)

March 8, 1954

Buffalo Memorial Auditorium,
Buffalo, NY

O'Malley's layup, off a pass from Gola, tied the game at 68 at the buzzer in regulation, and La Salle went on to capture the overtime victory. Gola finished with 28 points and 16 rebounds, and O'Malley added 13 points.

EASTERN REGIONAL - SEMI-FINALS

LA SALLE 88, North Carolina State 81

March 12, 1954

The Palestra, Philadelphia, PA

Gola and Singley each scored 26 points as the Explorers advanced to the Eastern Regional final with a win over the Atlantic Coast Champion Wolfpack. Gola also had 26 rebounds. The NCAA win was a repeat of an earlier La Salle triumph, 83-79, at North Carolina State.

EASTERN REGIONAL - FINALS

LA SALLE 64, Navy 48

March 13, 1954

The Palestra, Philadelphia, PA

Gola again led the way with 22 points and 24 rebounds. A 22-8 scoring margin in the third period gave the Explorers a 43-29 lead going into the last 10 minutes. Singley had 16 points in the championship victory.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS - SEMI-FINALS

LA SALLE 92, Penn State 54

March 19, 1954

Kansas City Municipal Auditorium,
Kansas City, MO

Blatcher, who had scored 25 points in the previous three games, matched Gola's total of 19 points in the NCAA semifinal victory over the Nittany Lions. Gola also had 17 rebounds as La Salle led from the opening tap. Coach Ken Loeffler was almost apologetic after the game, explaining. "We weren't very interesting but what can you do against a zone [defense]."

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS - FINALS

LA SALLE 92, Bradley 76

March 20, 1954

Kansas City Municipal Auditorium,
Kansas City, MO

Trailing 43-42 at halftime, La Salle exploded for 30 points in the third period to open a 15-point lead and coast to the NCAA title. Gola scored 9 points. Blatcher 8 in the period. Blatcher, a 24-year-old sophomore Navy veteran, and Singley, another sophomore, each scored 23 points in the Championship game, while Gola again had as many points as rebounds (19). In the five NCAA Tournament games, Gola averaged 22.8 points and 20.4 rebounds; Singley averaged 17.2 points in the tournament, Blatcher 13.4, O'Malley 10.2, and Frank O'Hara, the only senior on the roster, 6.8. Gola was voted the tournament's Outstanding Player and was joined on the All-Tournament team by Singley.

LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

La Salle University is a liberal arts institution which combines the best of all educational worlds. With over 6,000 men and women attending classes, the University offers a pleasant environment within close proximity to Philadelphia's cultural, social and historic centers. Founded by the Brothers of Christian Schools, La Salle is named for St. John Baptiste de la Salle, founder of the Christian Brothers. The institution, which began as a one-building academy in center city Philadelphia, is on an 82.2-acre, 43-building campus in Philadelphia's Germantown section.

The La Salle day and evening faculty numbers 400 full and part-time, with 45 different programs of study offered in which to major. With a student-faculty ratio of 15-1 and an average class size of 20, students can be assured of as much personal guidance as needed from faculty members. This commitment to the individual has always been a major tenet of the Christian Brothers' goals for La Salle.

La Salle's curriculum requires the completion of 120 credits, but allows wide flexibility in choosing courses. A limited number of requirements in English composition, literature, philosophy and religion provide greater opportunity for depth outside the student's major field. The number of courses required by a department of its major never exceeds 17, leaving 8-10 courses as free electives that may be used to build a strong minor/dual major or to diversify one's background.

Various independent study programs provide the students with greater options. A thriving nationally-recognized Honors Program is available for gifted students. "La Salle in Europe" offers students the opportunity to spend their sophomore or junior year at the University of Fribourg, in Switzerland, while receiving full academic credit at La Salle. Programs are also available for a semester or a year of study in Spain.

Among the major buildings on campus are: the Connelly Library; the Roland Holroyd Science Center with facilities for study and research in Biology, Geology, Physics, and Psychology; the Olney Hall classroom building, and the College Union which houses offices for most student activities and clubs and is the main meeting place on campus.

The athletic department is housed in Hayman Hall. The facility includes the 1,700-seat Joseph Kirk Natatorium, three regulation-sized basketball courts, a 12 laps/mile suspended running track, weight training and exercise areas, a sauna, squash courts and a medical training area.

La Salle students come from 700 public and private schools in 30 states and 20 countries. The dormitories house more than 1,700 resident students in 11 residence halls and three apartment complexes. More than 75% of the student body plan graduate or professional work in their fields, with more than 1,200 degrees conferred annually.

La Salle undergraduates have been awarded 47 Fulbright grants since 1970, one of the highest number presented to an institution in the Mid-Atlantic Region. According to a recent survey, La Salle ranked in the top 4% nationally among private undergraduate institutions originating Ph.D.s (33rd out of 877 colleges and universities).

Recently, La Salle has enjoyed increasing national attention, including:

- The New York Times, which selected La Salle as one of only 200 schools to appear in its guide book, Best Buys in College Education.

- U. S. News & World Report, which named La Salle one of the country's leading regional universities in the 1993 edition of "America's Best Colleges."

- Newsday, the influential Long Island newspaper, which referred to La Salle as a "university on the rise" in a recent article entitled "Where the Hot Schools Are."

- The 1990 edition of Barron's 300: Best Buys In College Education, which names La Salle among the institutions that offer quality academic programs at prices below the national average.

- Since 1977, 99% of all students recommended by the University have been offered entry into medical schools.

- La Salle ranks among the nation's leaders in student retention; nine of every 10 freshmen return for their sophomore year.

- Each year, recruiters representing nearly 200 companies and organizations visit La Salle's campus to conduct job interviews with graduating seniors.

LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

Joseph Burke, F.S.C., Ph.D. President

Joseph F. Burke, F.S.C., Ph.D., became LaSalle University's 27th president on July 1, 1992. He had served as provost of the university since 1990.

Born in Philadelphia in 1946, Brother Burke is the first La Salle alumnus to head the 129-year-old university. He has been a member of the Brothers of the Christian Schools, the lay teaching order that conducts the university, since 1963.

Brother Burke, who holds the academic rank of professor of psychology, originally served at La Salle from 1973 to 1986 as a faculty member, chairman of the Psychology Department, and president of the Faculty Senate for two terms. During that time he also initiated the university's graduate program in Human Services Psychology and was named recipient of a Christian and Mary Lindback Foundation Award for Distinguished Teaching.

After serving as an American Council of Education Fellow at the University of Hartford for the 1986-87 academic year, Brother Burke was appointed dean of the College of Basic Studies and special assistant to the president of the University of Hartford. He returned to La Salle as provost and vice president of the corporation in July, 1990.

A 1963 graduate of Philadelphia's La Salle College High School, Brother Burke earned his bachelor's degree in English in 1968 from La Salle College and a master's degree in educational administration from the University of Miami. He earned a Ph.D. in human behavior (psychology and anthropology) from the United States International University.

A clinical psychologist licensed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Brother Burke has had considerable professional experience counseling adults and adolescents, especially college students and juvenile delinquents. He served as a part-time clinical psychologist at St. Gabriel's Hall, the Christian Brothers' facility for incarcerated juveniles, from 1975-77.

Brother Burke has authored numerous articles and book chapters as well as the book Contemporary Approaches to Psychotherapy and Counseling: The Self-Regulation and Maturity Model, a comprehensive graduate-level textbook on psychotherapy, published by Brooks/Cole in 1989.

In addition to his membership on the American Council on Education's Council of Fellows, Brother Burke is a member of American Association for Higher Education, Association for General and Liberal Studies, American Psychological Association, and Eastern Psychological Association.

Dr. Raymond P. Heath Vice President for Student Affairs

Dr. Raymond P. Heath became Vice President for Student Affairs at La Salle University on July 1, 1980.

In addition to supervising the administration of the La Salle Intercollegiate Athletics program, Dr. Heath has primary responsibility for Campus Ministry, Counseling, Discipline/Judicial Affairs, Housing Services and Resident Life, the La Salle Union, Recreation, Student Activities, Student Health Services and related aspects of student life outside of the classroom. He is also an adjunct professor of Education and teaches a course each semester.

A 1965 graduate of Providence College, he received a M.S. from Southern Connecticut State University in 1970 and a Ph. D. from The Ohio State University in 1973.

In 1979, Dr. Heath attended the Institute for Educational Management at Harvard University. Prior to joining the La Salle administration as Dean of Students in 1975, Dr. Heath was a secondary teacher of English and coach in Connecticut, the Administrative Associate to the Director at The Ohio Union at Ohio State, and Dean of Freshmen at Ohio Wesleyan University.

Dr. Heath has had extensive professional association experience. In 1980, he was elected Vice President for Region II (Middle Atlantic States) and a member of the Board of Directors of the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators for a two-year term. He was later also elected President of the Eastern Association of College Deans and Advisors of Students.

Dr. Heath has continued to participate on the executive boards of Eastern Deans, the Pennsylvania Association of Student Personnel Administrators, and of Region II of NASAPA. He also has been NASPA's representative on several professional association task forces regarding athletics, most recently concerning the responsibility of chief student affairs officers for the administration of intercollegiate athletics programs.

Throughout La Salle's nine-year tenure as a member of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC), he was an active member of the Conference's Finance and Policy Committees. Dr. Heath is a respected speaker, panelist, author and consultant on a variety of student affairs management topics.

Dr. Heath's civic involvement includes services as a trustee of Germantown Academy, a member of the Youth and Special Services Committee of the United Way of Southeastern Pennsylvania, and as a volunteer coach and official for youth sports programs. He also is a lector and eucharistic minister at Saint Catherine of Siena Church.

Dr. Heath and his wife, Carol, an administrator/teacher at Jenkintown High School, reside in Ambler, PA, with their daughter, Kristin, a Germantown Academy graduate and a junior member of the University of Notre Dame women's swimming team.

LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

Robert Mullen

Director of Athletics

Under Robert Mullen, Director of Athletics, La Salle University has achieved national recognition. The Explorers' men's basketball program has made six consecutive post-season tournament appearances and the women's team earned berths in the 1987-88 and 1988-89 NCAA Tournament, and the 1992 Women's National Invitational Tournament. La Salle captured the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Commissioner's Cup (symbolic of athletic excellence) in five of the six years of his tenure.

La Salle University has made many improvements in facilities and within its athletic structure, with Mullen acting as the catalyst for these changes. His efforts in moving the men's basketball home site to the Philadelphia Civic Center and his success in moving La Salle to the Midwestern Collegiate Conference and top ten conference play, have added a new era of excitement to La Salle basketball.

Mullen has been President of the MAAC and Chairman of the Philadelphia Big 5. Prior to joining the La Salle staff, he was Director of Athletics at the University of Southern Colorado and Loras College. Mullen has been the President of the NAIA Athletic Directors Association and was the College Representative to the Executive Council of the National Association of College Athletic Directors (NACDA). He also served as athletic administrator to the Goodwill Games in 1986 in Moscow. He has been on the NCAA Nomination Committee and recently was appointed to the Board of Directors of the Philadelphia Sports Congress.

Bob originally hails from the Delaware Valley, but left his home in Chester, PA, in 1948, for residence in Park Forest, a suburb of Chicago, where he obtained most of his education and athletic background. He played several sports in high school and college, although basketball was his main interest. A graduate with both a B.S., Ed., and M.S., Ed., from Northern Illinois University, Bob has been a head coach in almost every sport in the secondary level and an Athletic Director and head college basketball coach for half of the last three decades. Mullen had over 300 victories in just 16 seasons, including several trips to the NAIA National Tournament.

On the family side, Mullen and his wife, Marcia, have four children: Sherry, a Respiratory Therapist, is married with two children, living in Elgin, IL; Scott is in facility management with Spectacor, Inc., and is a former Drake University wide receiver; Kelly, a teacher in Pennsauken, NJ, and a former member of the La Salle track team, and Rob, a junior at Ursinus College, where he is a member of the football team.

Thomas Meier

Associate

Director of Athletics

Thomas Meier was appointed Associate Athletic Director on August 1, 1991. A member of the La Salle University athletic department since 1976, Meier has served as Director of Intramurals and since 1985, had been Assistant Athletic Director.

Born and raised in Easton, PA, Meier earned a B.A. in Psychology from Dickinson College and a master's degree in physical education at Temple University. He played varsity basketball and baseball in both high school and college and lists golf among his hobbies, along with carpentry and camping.

Tom has resided in Jenkintown since 1980 and he and his wife, Judy, have three children - Shelley, Kyle, and Zachery.

Kathleen McNally

Assistant

Athletic Director

Kathleen McNally has served as Assistant Athletic Director at La Salle University since 1977. McNally's main responsibility is to help direct the administrative and operational aspects of La Salle's 22 varsity sports.

A 1968 graduate of West Chester University, McNally coached the La Salle field hockey team from 1976 to 1980. McNally's work with the team helped produce two Olympians and a national championship in 1980.

A member of the National Sports Festival coaching staff for field hockey, McNally was named Coach-of-the-Year in 1980 by the Philadelphia Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women.

McNally has represented La Salle as a member of the NCAA Council and on numerous NCAA, ECAC and Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference committees.

Prior to joining the La Salle University staff, McNally was a successful high school coach and teacher of health education and physical education at Paul VI High School and Collingswood High School in New Jersey.

Kathy's family includes husband Butch and sons Michael and John.
